

FANSC Photo Album – November 2023

Tom and Cindy Mates - at the Pio Xi Glacier in Chile . Also called the Bruggen Glacier, it is in southern Chile and is the largest western outflow from the Southern Patagonian Ice Field.

(I had to look that one up!)

...and look who they ran into!

Pam and Dwight Kasperbauer, along with the Mates.

Our Intrepid Adventurers... Larry Gearing hosts another interesting Men's Outing at the Amazon Warehouse. It must have been fascinating! I can only hope they didn't catch site of the pile of boxes headed to my house.

The Champions!!

Tom Mates and Bryon Bednar share the John Clough Memorial Trophy after coming out on top of the Annual Championship Tournament on October 4th. Suzy Clough, John's wife, presented the trophy to the winners.
